Implementation

The changes set out in paragraphs 1, 2 and 31 to 48 of this statement take effect on 11 July 2014. However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave before 11 July 2014 and the application has not been decided before that date, it will be decided in accordance with the Rules in force on 10 July 2014.

The change set out in paragraph 3 of this statement takes effect on 11 July 2014.

The changes set out in paragraphs 4 to 12 and 49 to 64 of this statement take effect on 28 July 2014 and apply to all applications to which paragraphs 276ADE to 276DH and Appendix FM apply (or can be applied by virtue of the Immigration Rules), and to any other ECHR Article 8 claims (save for those from foreign criminals), and which are decided on or after that date.

The change set out in paragraph 13 of this statement takes effect on 28 July 2014.

The changes set out in paragraphs 14 to 30 of this statement take effect on 28 July 2014 and apply to all ECHR Article 8 claims from foreign criminals which are decided on or after that date.

The change set out in paragraph 65 of this statement takes effect on 1 August 2014. However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave before 1 August 2014, Appendix N will be applied as in force on 31 July 2014.

The changes set out in paragraph 66 of this statement take effect on 1 August 2014.

However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave relying on an English language test deleted from Appendix O by paragraph 66 the following transitional provisions will apply:

The transitional provisions set out in the implementation paragraphs of HC 198, laid on 10 June 2014, will not apply to such applications, but will continue to apply to other applications.

Review

Before the end of each review period, the Secretary of State undertakes to review all of the relevant Immigration Rules including any Relevant Rule amended or added by these changes. The Secretary of State will set out the conclusions of the review in a report and publish the report.

The report must in particular:

- (a) consider each of the Relevant Rules and whether or not each Relevant Rule achieves its objectives and is still appropriate; and
- (b) assess whether those objectives remain appropriate and, if so, the extent to which they could be achieved with a system that imposes less regulation.

“Review period” means:

- (a) the period of five years beginning on 6 April 2012, and
- (b) subject to the paragraph below, each successive period of five years.

If a report under this provision is published before the last day of the review period to which it relates, the following review period is to begin with the day on which that report is published.

“Relevant Rule” means an immigration rule which imposes a net burden (or cost) on business or civil society organisations.

THE STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN IMMIGRATION RULES
PRESENTED TO PARLIAMENT ON 10 JULY 2014 (HC 532)

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Home Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the Instrument

2.1. The purpose of these changes is to:

- amend the Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) category of the Points-Based System. The changes suspend the provision to switch into the category from study categories and the Tier 1 (Post-Study Work) category, except in certain circumstances. These changes are being made in response to evidence of widespread abuse of these provisions, pending further investigation of this abuse and consideration of other remedial measures;
- add a new 12 month “Mathematics Teacher Exchange” scheme between England and China to the list of approved schemes under the Tier 5 Government Authorised Exchange route;
- remove all tests provided by Cambridge International Examinations (“CIE”) and certain tests provided by Cambridge English and Trinity College London from the list of approved English language tests used in various immigration categories, including the Points-Based System and applications by family members;
- align the Immigration Rules on family and private life in Appendix FM and paragraphs 276ADE-276DH with the public interest considerations in section 117B of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 which apply to decisions engaging the qualified right to respect for private and family life under Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights. The changes also align the Immigration Rules on family and private life in Part 13, which relate to foreign criminals, with the public interest considerations in sections 117B and 117C of the 2002 Act. These considerations are inserted by section 19 of the Immigration Act 2014, which comes into force on 28 July 2014;
- align the Immigration Rules in Part 13 which relate to foreign criminals with the power to certify human rights claims where there is no risk of serious irreversible harm from removal pending appeal contained in section 94B of the 2002 Act. This power is inserted by section 17(3) of the Immigration Act 2014, which comes into force on 28 July 2014; and
- make other minor amendments and updates.

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments or the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments

3.1. The Committee is invited to note that this Statement of Changes is accompanied by amended guidance relating to the changes to Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) which is being published on the visas and immigration pages of the GOV.UK website <https://www.gov.uk/visasimmigration> on the same date as these changes take effect, namely 11 July 2014. Guidance relating to changes to approved English language test providers will be published on the visas and immigration pages of the GOV.UK website <https://www.gov.uk/visasimmigration> on 1 August 2014.

3.2. The Home Office regrets that, for the changes to Tier 1 (Entrepreneur), it has not been possible to give the usual 21 days' notice before they take effect. The changes are required urgently to counter abuse in the Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) category and, as with changes to the route laid on 30 January 2013 (HC 943), need to come into force immediately to avoid a surge in abusive applications by those seeking to apply before the changes come into effect. The Explanatory Memorandum to HC 943 stated that previous changes to the category in December 2012 had led to a spike of nearly 3,000 applications when laid with 21 days' notice. It remains a concern that this would be repeated if the changes in this statement were laid with 21 days' notice.

3.3. The correction to the rules relating to Tier 1 (Graduate Entrepreneur) is also being made without the usual 21 days' notice. This correction is in applicants' favour, and is being made quickly to ensure that applications are not refused unnecessarily.

3.4. The changes relating to family and private life will come into force on 28 July 2014, in line with the commencement of section 19 of the Immigration Act 2014. The Home Office regrets that it was not possible to finalise this Statement of Changes on a basis that, consistent with normal practice, would have allowed the changes to be laid at least 21 days prior to their coming into force. This is because many of the changes to the Immigration Rules need to coincide with the coming into force of sections 17(3) and 19 of the Immigration Act 2014 on 28 July 2014.

3.5. However, the substance of those changes which concern the alignment of the Immigration Rules relating to family and private life with sections 117B, 117C and 117D of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002, inserted by section 19 of the 2014 Act, along with section 94B of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002, were extensively debated by both Houses of Parliament during the passage of the Immigration Act.

4. Legislative Context

4.1. The Immigration Rules, as laid before Parliament by the Home Secretary, constitute a statement of practice to be followed in the administration of the Immigration Act 1971 for regulating entry into and the stay of persons in the United Kingdom.

4.2. This Statement of Changes in Immigration Rules will be incorporated into a consolidated version of the Immigration Rules, which can be found in the visas and immigration pages of the GOV.UK website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/immigration-rules> where there are also copies of all the Statements of Changes in Immigration Rules issued since May 2003.

4.3. The changes set out in paragraphs 1, 2 and 31 to 48 of this statement take effect from 11 July 2014. However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave before 11 July 2014 and the application has not been decided before that date, it will be decided in accordance with the Rules in force on 10 July 2014.

4.4. The change set out in paragraph 3 of this statement takes effect on 11 July 2014.

4.5. The changes set out in paragraphs 4 to 12 and 49 to 64 of this statement take effect on 28 July 2014 and apply to all applications to which paragraphs 276ADE to 276DH and Appendix FM apply (or can be applied by virtue of the Immigration Rules), and to any other ECHR Article 8 claims (save for those from foreign criminals), and which are decided on or after that date.

4.6. The change set out in paragraph 13 of this statement takes effect on 28 July 2014.

4.7. The changes set out in paragraphs 14 to 30 of this statement take effect on 28 July 2014 and apply to all ECHR Article 8 claims from foreign criminals which are decided on or after that date.

4.8. The change set out in paragraph 65 of this statement takes effect from 1 August 2014. However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave Appendix N will be applied as in force on 31 July 2014.

4.9. The changes set out in paragraph 66 of this statement take effect from 1 August 2014. However, if an applicant has made an application for entry clearance or leave relying on an English language test deleted from Appendix O by paragraph 66:

(a) Appendix O as it applied on 31 July 2014 will apply to a person who makes an application for entry clearance to enter the UK before 22 August 2014; and

(b) Appendix O as it applied on 31 July 2014 will apply to a person who makes an application for leave to remain in the UK before 1 August 2014.

The transitional provisions set out in the implementation paragraphs of HC 198, laid on 10 June 2014, will not apply to such applications, but will continue to apply to other applications.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

5.1. This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

6.1. As this Statement of Changes in Immigration Rules is subject to a negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy Background

What is being done and why

Changes relating to Tier 1 (Entrepreneur)

7.1. The Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) category of the Points-Based System caters for those with financial backing (of either £50,000 or £200,000, depending on their circumstances) to set up, take over or otherwise be actively involved in the running of a business in the UK.

7.2. Applicants who are in the UK in a study category (Tier 4 and the older study categories it superseded) can currently apply to switch into Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) if they have access to £50,000 funding to invest in business from:

- one or more registered venture capitalist firms regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA),
- one or more UK Entrepreneurial seed funding competitions endorsed by UK Trade & Investment, or
- one or more UK Government Departments, or Devolved Government Departments in Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland.

7.3. Applicants who are in the UK in the Tier 1 (Post-Study Work) category can currently apply to switch into Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) if they:

- have access to £50,000 funding from:
 - one or more registered venture capitalist firms regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA),
 - one or more UK Entrepreneurial seed funding competitions endorsed by UK Trade & Investment, or
 - one or more UK Government Departments, or Devolved Government Departments in Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland,
- have access to £50,000 funding from any source, and have already established themselves in business and are working in a skilled occupation, or
- have access to £200,000 funding from any source.

7.4. The rules for the category were tightened in December 2012 and again in January 2013 to attempt to counter abuse. However, UK Visas & Immigration (UKVI) continues to receive very high volumes of applications, around two thirds of which are refused on the basis that UKVI is not satisfied that the applicant genuinely intends to establish a business. Further investigations have identified large numbers of applications under this category to be associated with organised attempts to obtain leave to remain by fraud. In addition our investigations into those involved in abusing the English language testing regime have identified a significant number of people with invalid or questionable ETS certificates have either obtained, or sought to obtain leave under the Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) route. UKVI checks on the tax status of those who have previously been granted leave to remain under the route also indicate that a significant number are in employment in breach of their conditions.

7.5. Given the scale of the attempted abuse it is necessary to suspend part of this route whilst further investigations are carried out and a review is conducted into what further steps are required to ensure that the operation of this category of stay delivers its purpose.

7.6. We will keep the route open where we believe it is working effectively. These changes amend the above switching provisions so that applicants who are in the UK in a study category will only be able to apply to switch into Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) if they have access to £50,000 funding to invest in business from:

- one or more UK Entrepreneurial seed funding competitions endorsed by UK Trade & Investment, or
- one or more UK Government Departments, or Devolved Government Departments in Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland.

(The provision for venture capitalist funding is being removed.)

7.7. These changes also amend the above switching provisions so that applicants who are in the UK in the Tier 1 (Post-Study Work) category can apply to switch into Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) if they:

- have access to £50,000 funding from:
 - one or more UK Entrepreneurial seed funding competitions endorsed by UK Trade & Investment, or
 - one or more UK Government Departments, or Devolved Government Departments in Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland, or
- have access to £50,000 funding from any source, and have already established themselves in a genuine business (which is not de facto employment with another employer) before the date these changes take effect (namely 11 July 2014), and are working in a skilled occupation. Evidential requirements to show that applicants have established themselves in a genuine business are being tightened.

(The provisions for venture capitalist funding and for those with funding not from a specified source, who are not established in a genuine business before 11 July 2014, are being removed.)

7.8. The changes being made are proportionate, given the evidence of high levels of abuse of the existing arrangements by in-country applicants. There are no changes being made to the provisions for funding from endorsed seed funding competitions or Government Departments, where there is currently no evidence of abuse. There are also no changes being made to the funding provisions for applications from overseas.

7.9. The following minor changes are also being made to this category. These are routine changes, but to avoid confusion by issuing multiple updates of forms and guidance, they are being made at the same time as the changes above:

- Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) Migrants are restricted to working only for their own business. A clarification is being made to confirm that this means they cannot claim to be self-employed yet work in a de facto employment relationship with another employer.
- Clarifications are being made to tables in Appendix A that registration as a director must be with Companies House. The notes to the tables already made this clear, but the amendments show this more clearly in the tables themselves.
- A clarification is being made to the requirement for an applicant to be a director where the funding they are claiming points for is made available to their business, rather than to the applicant by name.
- A minor update is being made to reflect the fact that bills for Class 2 National Insurance contributions are no longer issued quarterly.
- A change is being made so that where an applicant is required to provide evidence of a business bank account, they must be a signatory to that account. This is a minor change which all genuine applicants should already satisfy. As such, it is not considered necessary to give advance notice of this change.
- A minor change is being made to the definition of “partner” where an applicant is relying on funds held in a joint bank account with their spouse, civil partner or partner. This change brings the definition into line with that in the Rules for family members (Appendix FM) where appropriate, and also confirms that the definition only includes partners of Tier 1 Migrants within the meaning of Part 8 of the Rules.

Changes relating to Tier 1 (Graduate Entrepreneur)

7.10. The Tier 1 (Graduate Entrepreneur) category caters for graduates who have been endorsed by UK Higher Education Institutions or by UK Trade and Investment to establish one or more businesses in the UK. A correction is being made to make clear that a requirement, for those last granted as Tier 2 Migrants to have been sponsored as post-doctoral researchers, applies only to applications for leave to remain.

Changes relating to Tier 5 (Government Authorised Exchange)

7.11. Tier 5 of the Points-Based System caters for youth mobility and temporary workers coming for primarily non-economic purposes, and consists of two categories: Tier 5 (Youth Mobility Scheme) and Tier 5 (Temporary Workers).

The Temporary Workers category consists of five sub-categories: Creative and Sporting, Charity Workers, Religious Workers, Government Authorised Exchange, and International Agreement. Applicants must have a Tier 5 Sponsor, which is usually their UK employer. The Government Authorised Exchange route enables people to come to the UK to share knowledge, skills and gain work experience through individual schemes.

7.12. The change adds a new 12 month “Mathematics Teacher Exchange” scheme between England and China to the list of approved schemes under the Tier 5 Government Authorised Exchange route. This scheme is funded by the Department for Education (DfE) and will be run by the National College for Teaching and Leadership which is an executive agency of the DfE. The scheme aims to share learning and best practice regarding the teaching of mathematics in schools in England and China.

Changes relating to approved English language tests

7.13. Applicants in various immigration categories are required to prove their English language ability. One way in which they may do so is by passing an English language test approved by the Secretary of State for these purposes. The approved tests, and the levels of English that they are accepted for, are set out in Appendix O to the Immigration Rules.

7.14. Changes are being made to remove all tests provided by Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) from the list of approved English language tests on 1 August 2014. This is a scheduled withdrawal at this provider’s request.

7.15. Changes are also being made to remove specific tests provided by Cambridge English (the BULATS Online test) and Trinity College London (ESOL Skills for Life tests) from the list of approved English language tests on 1 August 2014. These changes are being made at the providers’ requests. Other listed tests from these two providers will continue to be accepted.

Changes relating to family and private life

7.16. These changes make technical amendments to the Immigration Rules on family and private life in Appendix FM and paragraphs 276ADE-276DH to align these with the public interest considerations in section 117B of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 for decisions engaging the qualified right to respect for private and family life under ECHR Article 8. These considerations, inserted by section 19 of the Immigration Act 2014 which comes into force on 28 July 2014, give the weight of primary legislation to Parliament’s view of what the public interest under Article 8 requires, in particular in respect of controlling immigration to safeguard the UK’s economic well-being. The amendments to the Immigration Rules on family and private life in Appendix FM and paragraphs 276ADE-276DH made by this Statement of Changes do not represent any substantive change to the policies reflected in the Statement of Changes HC 194 which came into force on 9 July 2012, but ensure consistency of language with that used in section 19 of the 2014 Act, which now provides statutory underpinning for those policies.

7.17. These changes also make amendments to the Immigration Rules on family and private life in Part 13, which relate to foreign criminals, to align these with the public interest considerations in sections 117B and 117C of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 for decisions engaging the qualified right to respect for private and family life under ECHR Article 8 and to allow non-suspensive appeals for those being deported in section 94B of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002.

7.18. The ECHR Article 8 considerations, inserted by section 19 of the Immigration Act 2014 which comes into force on 28 July 2014, give the weight of primary legislation to Parliament's view of what the public interest under Article 8 requires in particular in respect of preventing disorder or crime. In addition, this Statement of Changes makes amendments to set out clearly the practice the Secretary of State will follow when an ECHR Article 8 claim from a foreign criminal succeeds and leave to enter or remain is to be granted.

7.19. The non-suspensive appeals provision, inserted by section 17(3) of the Immigration Act 2014, allows the Secretary of State to certify an appeal where an individual is liable to deportation when, despite the appeals process not having been begun or not having been exhausted, removal of a person to the country or territory to which they are proposed to be removed, pending the outcome of an appeal in relation to their claim, would not be unlawful under section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998, for example the individual would not face a real risk of serious irreversible harm if removed.

8. Consultation

8.1. As the changes to Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) are required urgently to counter abuse, they have not been the subject of a formal public consultation.

8.2. The changes to the Immigration Rules on family and private life in paragraphs 276AO to 276DG, Appendix FM and Part 13 are to align the rules with primary legislation coming into force on the same date. They have therefore not been the subject of a formal public consultation.

8.3. The other changes are updates to existing lists and do not change existing policies. They have not therefore been the subject of a formal public consultation.

9. Guidance

9.1. Guidance will be updated and placed on the GOV.UK website.

10. Impact

10.1. These changes will have limited or no impact on business, charities, the public sector or voluntary bodies, such that an impact assessment is unnecessary.

11. Regulating small business

11.1. The Tier 1 (Entrepreneur) category is used by migrants establishing or taking over small businesses. The changes to this category are concerned with countering abuse and will have limited or no impact on genuine small businesses which are already established. The other changes will also have limited or no impact on small businesses.

12. Monitoring and review

12.1. The review clauses at the beginning of this Statement of Changes require the Secretary of State to review the operation and effect of all of the relevant Immigration Rules, including any Rules amended or added by the changes in this Statement and lay a report before Parliament within five years of 6 April 2012 and within every five years after that. Following each review the Secretary of State will decide whether the relevant Immigration Rules should remain as they are, be revoked or be amended. A further Statement of Changes would be needed to revoke or amend the relevant Rules.
